Delegates Agree to Disregard Instructions but Dead-lock is Unbroken.

Illinois Convention Devises a Way to Vary the Monotony, but it Fails to Work.

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—A desperate effort on the part of the Republican leaders to break the deadlock in the state convention failed last evening, and at 8 o'clock the assemblage took a recess until 10 a. m. today without having nominated a candidate for governor.

The attempt to bring about the break was a spectacular one. Ex-Congressman Walter Reeves, chairman of the committee on resolutions, and Chairman Cannon engineered the plan, which was made possible by the report of the committee on resolutions, which presented the resolution which it originated and which was referred to the committee at Wednesday's session. This resolution was to the effect that the delegates be released from instructions, and when it was presented Mr. Reeves called upon the candidates one by one to come before the convention and express their opinion regarding it.

Each declared in favor of the resolution. Then Mr. Reeves yielded a portion of his time to John W. Parker, the author of the resolution, who urged its adoption in letter and in spirit as well.

Congressman Cannon then demanded the attention of the convention, eloquently pleaded with the delegates to break the deadlock. He declared that the delegates must compromise and called attention to the fact that the convention by its inaction was injuring the Republican party not only in Illinois, but in the entire nation.

"Let's adopt this resolution," he said, "and then nominate a ticket and let's do it today." There was not a vote against the resolution, but when the roll was called on the sixty-seventh ballot there was no substantial change from the ballots of the previous day.

When the convention reconvened for the afternoon session, the long expected break from Yates to Lowden came and he got the vote of Speaker Cannon's district as well as the votes of several other counties and some scattering delegates. For several ballots his vote increased until he reached a vote of 631 1/2. Then the tide turned and on the closing ballot, the 78th, his vote had dropped to 532 1/2. It requires 752 to nominate.

Yates' lowest vote during the day was 362 and his closing vote was 405. There was no material change in the vote of the other candidates.

Much excitement prevailed during the afternoon session. Lowden shouters started several demonstrations in efforts to stampede the convention, and they made a great din. When Lowden began to fall back the Yates people began a demonstration and let down from the girders a great banner bearing the quotation: "Hold the Fort."

Chairman Cannon ordered it taken down, and a dozen ready hands, led by Sheriff Ben Brainerd, tore it from its fastenings and threw the wreck into the Morgan county Yates delegation. A free-for-all fight was prevented only by the interference of the police. The banner, after its rescue by the Yates men, was hung up in the rear of the platform.

RICHMOND ART EXHIBIT

Annual Display of Work of Celebrated Artists This Month.

Paintings from celebrated artists and art stores in the East and Central West are arriving at Richmond for the annual June exhibit of the Richmond Art Association, which will be opened next Tuesday evening. The work of hanging the pictures was begun yesterday, and a large committee of association members will put in the remainder of the time until the opening of this work. Daingerfield's "Madonna" has arrived, being sent by a New York house. It will be one of the central features of the exhibit.

The work of cataloguing the exhibit is about complete and the souvenir that will be issued by the association will be ready for the first night.

The Gas Situation.
Gas companies all over the State are complaining that they will have to cut off many patrons next year. The Richmond company is said to be one of the few exceptions, and indications are that the local companies in Rushville will be able to give its patrons as good a supply as ever. The Indiana Natural Gas and Oil company, which has been supplying Chicago with gas, will soon be compelled to cease operations, it is said. Five hundred tons of coal have been purchased by this company for use beneath the boilers of its pumping station, west of Fairmount. The fact that enough gas can not be procured to operate the station looks bad for the business for next winter.

ARE AT WORK
Fine Progress Being Made by Traction Company—Unloading Rails.

The Traction company now has a force of about thirty-five men at work in this city under the supervision of Geo. S. Henry, unloading material for the construction of the road.

The unloading of rails is an interesting sight and there are some interesting facts connected with that part of the work. The rails are long and heavy and are let down off the car by means of a derrick, when they are piled up in order to remain there until the ties are distributed along the right-of-way and laid down ready to receive the rails.

The ties will be hauled to their places with teams from where they are now being unloaded, in the west part of town, but the rails will not be distributed along the road before being laid, but a small piece of track will be started here, after which they will be loaded on small cars drawn by small steam engines owned by the traction company and will be laid right ahead of this train, so that they will be put down as fast as taken to the place.

These engines and cars will be brought here in a few weeks. They are now being used to haul gravel to balast the Shelbyville line.

The rails for the new road are sixty feet in length and weighing seventy pounds to the yard, or fourteen hundred pounds each. When they are laid in their place after being unloaded, they are caught by twelve to fourteen men, who understanding how to handle them in concert, can place them in the desired position without much effort.

A large number of poles are being unloaded here on the vacant lots near the Lake Erie depot. Mr. Henry, who recently moved here to this city, finds some trouble in securing the needed help, and also finds trouble in finding places for them to board. Fifteen men were brought to this city from Shelbyville, Wednesday.

Mr. Henry's desk and office fixtures will arrive here from Indianapolis, and temporarily will be placed in the office of the Central Fuel company.

The laying of tracks on the streets of Rushville will begin in the next few weeks, and the company have adopted a plan to lay them without interfering with traffic. They will lay the track in one square at a time and place the street in as good condition as it was before it was torn up, before beginning on another.

Inasmuch as double tracks are to be laid, streets within the square upon which they are working will be blocked to traffic while the tracks are being laid.

C. E. Annual Convention.
The Seventeenth Annual State Christian Endeavor Convention of Indiana will be held at Fort Wayne, June 23d to 26th inclusive, and preparations are being made for the largest and best convention ever held. The program will be of the highest order and everything which can be done for the entertainment and comfort of the delegates during their visit is being done. A rate of one fare, plus 25 cents has been made on all the railroads from any and all points in the State. Tickets will be sold June 22d to 25th inclusive, and good for returning up to and including July 6th. When the fare for the round trip is less than $1.00, the extra 25 cents is not charged.

Men and Women Cannot Be Taught by Identical Methods

By Professor ALBION W. SMALL, Chicago University

THOROUGHLY good teacher would unconsciously give DIFFERENT INSTRUCTION to young men and young women in attempting to give the SAME COURSE. In teaching both men and women in college since 1881 my experience has invariably been that the things which interested men did not interest women in the same way, and vice versa, and I have always felt that if I were teaching them separately I should have to put the EMPHASIS at different points in order to do the best work for each.

I have always found that women in college, as a rule, have to be hounded into objecting to anything that the INSTRUCTOR says. One has to approach nearer to the point of absurdity to get them to take a critical attitude toward the instructor's authority than in the case of men. I have no dogma about the permanency of this difference, but so far as my experience goes it is the rule. This would also give me the cue to DIFFERENCES OF TACTICS in the two cases.

I WOULD NOT IN THE ORDINARY ARTS AND SCIENCE CURRICULUM MAKE ANY DIFFERENCE IN THE SUBJECTS OFFERED TO MEN AND WOMEN, BUT I WOULD VARY METHODS IN ADAPTA-TION TO TASTE AND MENTAL ATTITUDE.

THE LIVING

Should Not Be Forgotten In Our Veneration for the Dead.

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen
And waste its sweetness on the desert air."

This reverses the old saying of "more truth than poetry," for it is simply all poetry with little fact. No flower wastes its fragrance. The perfume, exhaled by the flower, is an expression of praise and gratitude to the Creator and such a tribute is not wasted.

No more do we waste our sweetest and most beautiful flowers when we weave them into garlands and place them reverently and affectionately upon the graves of our dead. We do not believe that any floral tribute, however profuse, rare, fragrant and beautiful affects in the slightest those who have passed away, or that they are cognizant of this act of affectionate and respectful remembrance. But no one can visit a grave and place thereon even a simple flower without being made the better.

Besides, the flowers, with which we decorate the graves of our dead, are emblems and promises of the resurrection, when they shall be raised incorruptible.

Falmouth Lodge of Odd Fellows decorated the graves of their dead brethren in Fairview cemetery the last Saturday in May. The address was delivered by the Rev. Brown, but recently a member of the order. I have been transported by more sublime flights of oratory, but it has never been my good fortune to listen to a more touching and tender heart-to-heart talk—so full of pathos and earnestness.

Monday, in spite of the almost uninterrupted downpour, several came to give an expression of praise and gratitude to those who battled for principle and for their country.

Sunday, the 12th, the Red Men will hold memorial services in the Cemetery church and lay their annual tribute upon the graves of their brethren.

And, now, while it is mete that we should observe these memorials, let us not forget the duty we owe to the living. If it is good to scatter flowers upon the graves of the dead, how much better it is to strew them in the paths of the living. A genial smile, a cheerful word, a hearty hand-clasp—each is a bud that will unfold and, by its sweetness and beauty, make better the lives of both giver and receiver.

ENORMOUS TASK

Difficulties Which Confront the Japs In Seige of Port Arthur.

General Kuropatkin is Reported to be Marching South to Harass Besieging Army.

Vanzalen, Manchuria, June 3.—The Japanese are landing another army of 50,000 men at Takushan.

London, June 3.—Telegrams from different points seem to confirm the rumors that General Kuropatkin is attempting a diversion in the direction of Port Arthur. Russian reinforcements, according to a dispatch from Tien Tsin, are moving southward from Kaiping toward Wafangtien under General Stalkenberg. They comprise a battery of artillery, four Siberian regiments and a company of Cossacks, aggregating 12,000 men. Another brigade is following, the intention being to engage the Japanese now attacking Port Arthur, in their rear.

The Standard's correspondent at Tien Tsin, sending the same news, says: "The Russian force in the engagement at Wafangtien May 30, is supposed to have been formed of four Siberian regiments which were reported to have left Tachiaochao May 29, being the first portion of a relieving column for Port Arthur. The railroad is fairly intact from the north of Wafangtien, but is completely destroyed from there to Pulantien. The Japanese are unconcerned over this demonstration, being convinced that it will be impracticable for the Russians to move a sufficient force to prove effective."

These reports are received with a certain measure of skepticism in London. The belief here is that if General Kuropatkin is undertaking such a desperate move he can only be doing so in deference to the strongest political pressure and against his own better judgment.

No further news of any kind has been received about the movements of the Japanese forces. Both Generals Kuroki and Oku are working in the utmost secrecy. The Daily Telegraph's well-informed Tokio correspondent estimates the total defending force in Port Arthur as 30,000.

"This is a most formidable army," he says, "and it will be a marvelous achievement to carry by assault such a place with more than a score of great landward forts disposed at a distance of fifteen miles from the harbor. Still the reduction of the place can be undoubtedly accomplished."

According to the Chronicle's Tokio correspondent the Russians have completed eleven fortresses at Liao Yang and are laying mines at a distance of 5,000 feet around them.

Japanese Supplies Destroyed.
Vladivostok, June 3.—Letters from the theater of war report that Russian raiders have succeeded in penetrating as far as Gensan and also south of Anju. They have destroyed depots of Japanese supplies and captured provision trains. Koreans are fleeing into Manchuria to escape the hardships of war. Chinese are moving from Kwan Tung into northern Manchuria in order to avoid living in territory under Japanese control.

General Stalkenberg Moves.
New Chwang, June 3.—Gen. Stalkenberg, with 14,000 Russians, upped of artillery, cavalry and infantry, has marched south of Liao Yang in the direction of Wafangtien. Large forces of Chinese banditars are collecting in the hills northwest of the Liao river and are preparing to cut the railroad north of Mukden.

To Reinforce General Oku.
Nagasaki, June 3.—Transports loaded with troops continue to leave western Japanese ports daily for the theater of war. A large proportion of these passed during the past week.

Mathewson only allowed six hits in the game against Cincinnati, yesterday.

Selbach, left fielder for Washington had six put outs to his credit yesterday which is very unusual for a fielder.

THE WEATHER.

Showers and Thunderstorms
Tonight and Saturday.

Anderson's Moral Wave.

A moral wave is sweeping Anderson. The police have been given instructions to see that all billiard halls, pool rooms and cigar stores, card tables suspend business on Sunday. Slot machines have been turned toward the wall, all gambling houses closed and Sunday base ball prohibited. A change has been made in the police department with a view of getting a stricter enforcement of the law. Anderson is now one of the tightest towns in the State.

Richland Township Convention.

The Republican Township Convention, of Richland township, for the purpose of nominating township officers will be held on Saturday, June 11th, at the Richland school house, at 1 o'clock p. m. BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

The Miami County Sentinel thinks that Boss Taggart deserves something better than abuse from Democrats who do not happen to agree with him in convention. Inasmuch as Mr. Taggart is looking to New York for the pay what he does in Indiana he is probably not much concerned about what is said of him in Indiana, so long as he is able to boss the Indiana Democrats at will.

Many are the misfortunes that have befallen the Democratic party, but not in forty years has come to it another such a fearful mischance as that which paralyzed it when it elected Grover Cleveland president in 1892 and a Democratic congress in addition. It will be many a campaign before the party fully recovers what it lost when in that election it thought it had won.

"There will be a good deal of wailing and gnashing of teeth among the Hearstites," said a reorganizer at the recent Parker convention, miscalled a Democratic State convention. This is true. There were just such exhibitions on the part of the Hearstites, but the Parkerites should keep in mind the fact that they haven't got away from St. Louis yet, and even when they do that, they should remember that there is such a thing as the ballot-box, where the unit rule and gag law do not suppress the sentiments of the voter. At least it is so in this part of the vineyard, and many a Hearstite is going to cast a vote that will contribute to considerable wailing and gnashing of teeth on the part of the reorganizers.

Mr. Cleveland is out with an article explaining his famous bond issue. This may have some weight among a certain class of politicians, but it is not likely to change anybody's opinion. And even if it should have any effect in this direction, the one thing that the millions of the people will remember his administration for is the unspeakable distress that came to the business world; the lack of employment of willing and eager workers; the armies of the unemployed; the necessity for soup houses, etc. This is what stands out as the most conspicuous feature of our history under that administration, and what anybody has to say about the bond business will not have much consideration among the millions that cast the votes so long as this universal distress is remembered.

CLEARING THE WAY

Delegates to Chicago Convention Devising Ways and Means.

Indianapolis, June 3.—Eighteen of the thirty delegates to the Republican national convention attended the meeting here yesterday afternoon. The meeting was brief—almost painfully so to those who came here expecting a long session. The only business was the adoption of a resolution to meet in Chicago on Monday morning before the convention to organize, authorizing an assessment of $5 against each delegate and $10 against each alternate for expenses and the appointment of a committee to arrange and have charge of the headquarters. The Hon. John B. Cockrum of this city, a Seventh district delegate, was made chairman of this committee, which will probably go to Chicago within a few days to make the arrangements. The assessment was lighter than usual, as it is generally $100 for each delegate. While the matter of organization was not discussed during the meeting, the delegates seemed to understand that Senator Beveridge is to be chairman and Senator Fairbanks the member of the committee on resolutions in case it is not evident that he is to be the nominee for vice president; otherwise Governor Durbin may be selected for the place. The idea of having a special train from here to Chicago was abandoned.

"Jack" Osborne and Charles Sihler, well known Evansville politicians, who have been here since yesterday, took occasion to give a black eye to the story that there is an estrangement between Congressman Hemenway of Boonville, and George A. Cunningham of Evansville, First district chairman. The latter, it was stated several months ago, expected to be a candidate for the United States senate in case Senator Fairbanks was elected vice president. As it was generally understood that Mr. Hemenway was the choice of most of the so-called Fairbanks men, the announcement concerning Cunningham very naturally created a lot of speculation. The matter has been enlarged on from time to time until it has been the general understanding here that Cunningham intended to oppose Hemenway in his own district. But Osborne and Sihler, who is the Vanderburgh county chairman, stated that there is absolutely nothing in the reports, as Cunningham is not a candidate for the senate and that the First district is for Hemenway if there is a vacancy.

If Senator Fairbanks anticipated that anyone might ask him embarrassing questions regarding the vice presidency at the meeting of the delegates he did not show it. On the contrary he was one of the first delegates to appear and he was as much at ease as ever before. In truth the senator seemed more congenial than ever, and during the thirty minutes he had to wait till the meeting was called to order by Chairman Goodrich he told his associates some funny stories, and everyone seemed to be having a good time. Undoubtedly several of the delegates were "dead anxious" for just a "wee tip" from the senator as to what he expects to do if the vice presidential nomination is offered him, but not one asked and he didn't enlighten them. So the delegates from Indiana are just as much in the dark as ever as to whether or not they have a man who will accept the vice presidential nomination—or, to be more specific, whether or not Senator Fairbanks will accept.

A report that National Committee-man Taggart and his associates have agreed upon Chairman W. H. O'Brien of the state committee for the Democratic nomination for governor, has been hailed with considerable interest, but a denial was promptly made. O'Brien has been frequently boomed for governor during the last eighteen months, but he has said just as frequently that he is not a candidate and that he won't accept the nomination. If the report that he is the choice of the Taggart crowd is taken seriously it is very likely that a strong denial will soon be made by him.

Big Class of Young Lawyers.

Valparaiso, Ind., June 3.—The annual commencement exercises of the law department of the Valparaiso college were held before 2,500 people at the college auditorium. President H. B. Brown conferred the degrees on the fifty-seven graduates, which composed one of the largest classes ever graduated from the school. The class was admitted to the Indiana bar by Judge John V. Hadley of the supreme court and to the United States circuit court by the authority of Judge A. B. Anderson. Noble C. Butler of Indianapolis administered the oath to the class.

THE OUT-DOOR CURE

Will Be Thoroughly Tested by the Illinois Medical Society.

Ottawa, Ill., June 3.—With the object of demonstrating that pulmonary consumption, if not too far advanced can be cured in the climate of Illinois, a tent colony is about to be established at Ottawa under the care of the Illinois Medical society. Plans are well advanced for the enterprise. The site taken, twenty-five or thirty acres overlooking the Illinois river, has been donated to the use of the colony, and arrangements are now in progress for the purchase of the tents and other equipment. At first the capacity of the colony will be about thirty patients, though the limit will be increased from time to time. Men and women patients will be received.

The colony will be open summer and winter alike. Each tent will contain one or two sufferers. The tents will be waterproof, but the freest circulation of air will be allowed, so that the patients will live an outdoor life day and night.

AN INTERESTING CAREER

Republican Candidate for Lieutenant Governor Adds Strength to the Ticket.

The strong ticket named by the Republicans of Indiana at their recent state convention was strengthened by the nomination for Lieutenant Governor of Hugh Th. Miller of Columbus, Ind. Mr. Miller, in all the varied phases of his activity, as farmer, student, college professor, minister, editor, business man and legislator, has given evidence of the possession of qualities which equip him for a career of very great usefulness to the people of Indiana. Hugh Miller comes of old Indiana stock. His father, John Chapman Miller, was a farmer, minister and college professor. His grandfather, John Smith Miller, entered the first land taken up in Neveh township, Johnson county. On this farm Mr. Miller worked as a boy, and he still manages the ancestral acres.

From the farm he entered Butler University, from which institution he graduated in 1888, winning honors in every department. "Hugh Miller," says the Butler Collegian, "was one of the most brilliant students ever graduated from the college, and for versatility he probably has not been equalled by any student here in the last twenty years." After graduating he spent year at home, devoting a part of his time to the ministry of the Christian church. In 1889 he began a ten-years' period of service, first as an instructor, later as a professor in his alma mater, leaving behind him in the institution when he left it to enter business five years ago, a deep impress on the college and those who as students and teachers had been associated with him. It is not surprising that he should have been favorably mentioned for the presidency of the institution when a vacancy occurred some time ago, and that a movement for his election thereto was stopped only by his intervention. After his retirement from college work Mr. Miller incidentally served for two years as editor of the journal of his college fraternity, "The Scroll," of Phi Delta Theta, and placed it in the very front rank of publications of this character.

The Butler Collegian says of Mr. Miller, that "while a student of prodigious ability, he has never been a book man or grind; he is an all-around man of the best type. His college and old friends are proud of his recent success, but they know he will justify all their hopes for him—that is why every Butler man is lined up for Hugh Miller. He will do honor to his friends and his state if elected, for he is fearless, eminently capable, thorough and incorruptible—the sort of man most needed in the administration of our public affairs."

STATE NEWS

Terre Haute, Ind., June 3.—The most unique entertainment ever given in Indiana will be the Old Boys' Reunion to be held at Terre Haute the week of Aug. 28 to Sept. 3. Several months ago the business men of the city, knowing that street and county fairs would no longer attract crowds, proposed a home-coming of all former citizens, and an association known as the Old Boys' Reunion association was formed to secure names of all "old boys and girls" and invite them here to meet their friends of the days long past.

The association recognizes the impossibility of securing the names of everyone who has lived here, but by thorough systems over 4,500 names are now on the records. The association plans to spend $10,000 entertaining the people. There will be barbecues, free trips to the factories of the city, speechmaking, reunion of schools and societies, parades, fireworks and elaborate street decorations.

New Albany "Back Homers."

New Albany, Ind., June 3.—The New Albany Commercial club is sending invitations to several thousand former residents to visit their old homes during what is designated as "home-coming week," from Aug. 8 to 18. The club expects hundreds of old-time residents in the city during that period, as the Chautauqua assembly will be in session in this city, the Knights of Pythias biennial encampment will be in Louisville at the same time, and reduced railroad rates will be secured.

RESORTED TO DYNAMITE

Extreme Means Used to Remove a Saloon at North Grove.

Peru, Ind., June 3.—Frank Montieth's saloon was wrecked and I. C. Stitt's home was considerably damaged, at North Grove by dynamite placed under the saloon by unknown persons. For ten years there has been a bitter fight waged against saloons in North Grove, and not until three months ago were the temperance people outwitted. Frank Montieth of Bunker Hill, advertised in the newspaper at that place for license to conduct a saloon in North Grove and obtained it without trouble.

When the temperance people discovered they had been outwitted, they were angry. It is said the saloon was wrecked as an outgrowth of the conflict. The saloon is in the main street and in a two-story building. A charge of two pounds of dynamite was placed under the side next to Stitt's house. The discharge, which shook the town as if by an earthquake, wrecked everything in the saloon but a barrel of whisky. The side of Stitt's house was blown in and the occupants were frightened. People hurried to the scene, but caught no glimpse of the persons causing the wreck. Montieth is said to have been conducting the saloon according to law.

They Want Dividends

Stockholders of Latonia Racetrack Secure a Receiver.

Cincinnati, June 3.—In the Kenton county circuit court at Covington, Ky., yesterday, Attorney James P. Tarvin filed a motion asking for the immediate appointment of a receiver for the Latonia racetrack. Harlan P. Whittaker, who is the plaintiff, alleges that the majority of the stockholders never received any dividends, although the association earned large sums of money. Master Commissioner John L. Rich was appointed temporary receiver and assumed charge of affairs at the track today.

MRS. ELIAS WILL APPEAR

Defendant in Sensational Suit Promises to Surrender.

New York, June 3.—Following the sensational news of the suit brought against Mrs. Hannah Elias by John R. Platt, the aged millionaire, who is seeking to obtain some of the $687,908 which he alleges the woman obtained from him through blackmail and other illegal measures, Judge Dugro,

MRS. HANNAH ELIAS.

In the supreme court, issued a civil order of arrest against Mrs. Elias. Deputy sheriffs who went to her house to serve it were told she was not in, but her attorney promised to surrender her today.

Andrew H. Green was mistaken for John R. Platt, the latter says, by the negro Williams, who killed the "father of New York" out of jealousy for Hannah Elias, the octogenarian accused by Platt of blackmailing him. "I knew it was a mistake from the first," says Mr. Platt, "and started this suit mainly to clear the dead. Mr. Green and Hannah Elias never met one another."

"I first saw this woman twenty years ago, when she was a girl of seventeen. Several friends were visiting me from San Francisco and I felt bound to show them the town. It was in a resort on 27th street that I met the girl.

"Ten years later I accidentally saw her again. After a time she expressed a desire to start a boarding house and I helped her. Since then her demands upon me have been so heavy that I am no longer a millionaire, though I have enough to keep me in comfort for the rest of my life."

A Rush to Rosebud.

Chicago, June 3.—The inquiries received at railroad offices regarding the opening of the Rosebud Indian reservation in South Dakota in July number nearly 1,000 a day, and indicate that about 50,000 people will go to the reservation in the hope of getting in.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Why read all the news one day late, when you can get the real live news of this locality every evening by reading the Republican?

Compare the Daily Republican with any county seat daily that you chance to see or be taking, and then do the wise thing—subscribe.

Dan R., the sensational Indiana pacer, will be on the track again this season. He is now training on the Indianapolis track and is given daily workouts in 2:25 to 2:30. Dan R., was once sold on the public square at Anderson for $70.

The Republican acknowledges receipt of an invitation to attend the dedication of the Thomas A. Hendricks Library at Hanover College, in Jefferson county, next Tuesday. Aquila Q. Jones, of Indianapolis, will deliver the address, taking for his subject the "Life and Character of Thomas A. Hendricks."

The $10,000 damage suit of former State chairman Chas. S. Hernly against the Panhandle railroad for injuries received in Richmond at the station while attempting to get on a train, last fall, has been compromised and taken out of court. Judge Leffler, of Richmond, dismissed the case. The terms of the compromise are not known.

Some recent civil service statistics are quite interesting. The whole number of employees under the rules is 150,383. Of these 25,675 are in the District of Columbia. There is a great range in ages; 101 are over 80 years of age, while 3422 are below the age of 20 years. There are about 338 clerks, who have served more than 40 years. Out of the whole number 50,000 receive salaries of less than $720 per annum, and 50,000 of more than $1400.

Judge and Mrs. John M. Morris, of New Castle, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bessie Joy Morris, to Lennard H. Mitchell. The wedding will occur the latter part of June. Miss Morris is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morris and a niece of Judge Morris of this city. She is a popular young lady of New Castle's society circle. Mr. Mitchell is the son of Hon. L. P. Mitchell, Deputy Comptroller of the Treasury of the United States, and holds a lucrative position in the post-office department.

For resenting an insult offered his wife, John Hiser, a Richmond young man, was mortally wounded on a street in St. Louis, early Monday morning. Hiser, in company with his wife, was returning home when a drunken man by the name of Lymann, made an insulting remark about Mrs. Hiser. While attempting to protect her, Hiser was shot by the stranger, the bullet entering his breast just below the heart. There is no hope for his recovery. Lymann called at the St. Louis police headquarters and confessed the shooting. Hiser was an intimate friend of Mr. Will G. Mulno, of this city.

John Knox, a hobo, was arrested by Policeman Ross for a second time last night at the C. H. & D. depot and lodged in jail on the charge of drunkenness. Knox was arrested last week for the same offense and ordered out of town, but it seems that he is here yet.

Rushville is the most beautiful city in this section of the State. Let every citizen constitute himself a member of an informal civic improvement association, put out flowers, vines, clean up the alleys, mow the weeds, and keep the grass in the yards trimmed up nicely.

At a meeting of the executive committee it was decided to extend the exhibit until June 22 in order that visitors who will be here for the State Sunday school convention may have an opportunity to attend. A number of Rushville people who are interested in art will attend the exhibit the latter part of next week.

Yesterday afternoon while switching near the C. H. & D. depot, the afternoon local pushed a cut of cars, loaded with heavy steel rails for the interurban line, off the track on what is known as the "elevator switch." The switch is the one which connects Brown & Riley's elevator with the main track and is seldom used for sidetracking anything as heavy as the rails were, and consequently the track spread under the weight of the rails. Two cars were pushed off the track which was torn up for a distance of forty feet or more and the scales belonging to the elevator were also twisted and damaged. This makes the third switch on that road in this city in the last six weeks, where the track has spread under much pressure.
